NOW&THEN Lecture Series Presents "The Switzerland Trail Of America" Presented By Larry Dorsey

Due to the Boulder County Health Department guidelines during the COVID-19 pandemic, the NOW&THEN Lecture Series will be brought to members by a video that is posted in the Niwot Historical Society's account on YouTube.

The First Lecture Was Taped On September 30, 2020

The photos show you the presenter and video crew at the Left Hand Grange No.9 to record our first lecture this fall. We have created a YouTube account where the series of videos will be located. Links are located on our website so you can always go there to have easy access. We are most appreciative to Bill Decker and Patrick Bohan for their work to tape and produce our lecture videos.

NOTE: Detailed information about all lectures will be posted on niwothistoricalsociety.org

On the website you will find Niwot history, photos, the Niwot Historical Society Board of Directors, contact information, our membership, donations, NOW&THEN lecture series information and past lectures along with links to other regional historic organizations.

NOW & THEN Lecture Series In 2020

- Video tape in October
“Let The Women Vote”
 Presented by Dr. Rebecca Hunt

- Video tape in November
“From Desert to Oasis, A Land Made From Water”
 Presented by Robert Crifasi

The video taping of our September 30 lecture, “The Switzerland Trail Of America”, was well organized, smooth in execution and credit is due to the professional volunteers Leonard Sitongia, video team of Patrick Bohan and Bill Decker who is also the producer.

Our next two videos are scheduled for October and November of this year. The speakers are confirmed and ready to share their presentations.

The Boulder County Health Department guidelines will be respected and followed with a maximum of seven (7) people in the Left Hand Grange No.9 for the video taping.
