We do not know at this time if we will be able to host lectures at the Left Hand Grange Hall this fall. Our activities during the COVID-19 pandemic depend on what is allowed for 'gatherings' by the Boulder County Health Department. Hopefully we do not have more surges of the virus and there will be more flexibility to meet for events and activities by the fall months.

The Video Team !!!.

It is most appreciative that these accomplished volunteer videographers and video producer have come to the Niwot Historical Society Now&THEN Lecture Series. They are wonderful to work with and do such an outstanding job producing the lecture videos.

Thank you to the video volunteers so we could continue into our 11th season of the Now&THEN Lecture Series !!!

Many thanks to the Video Crew of

- Bill Decker, video and production;
- Patrick Bohan, video and NHS member;
- Leonard Sitongia, NHS Board Member for contact and coordination with the video production of the lectures.

The Fire House Museum and Niwot Events

The Niwot Business Association (NBA) is planning many upcoming events within the business community and it will be nice if we can open the Fire House Museum for some of them so guests can learn about Niwot's history.

Because the Museum is small, most likely we will need to limit inside gathering to one family or one household at a time.

Watch for NBA notices or posters around Niwot for upcoming events. Each month from April – September the NBA will sponsor a “Sidewalk Sale”, Old Oak Coffeehouse’s “House Blend Band” will have concerts in the street on the west section of Second Avenue, bands continue at the Niwot Tavern in Cottonwood Square, authors are featured at Inkberry Books, all of our great restaurants and a brewery are open along with all the other unique and classic businesses we are fortunate to have in Niwot.

Watch for these themes: Around The World Day, Lobsterfest, HoneyBee Harvest Festival, Jazz Festival.

It will be fun if we can open the Fire House Museum for some of these events. Volunteers to host at the Museum are always appreciated!

Members, Volunteers and Friends are our most valuable resource.
